

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER'S COVENANT

2008-2009

Realizing my own weakness, but trusting in the power of the Lord Jesus Christ, I accept the call of my Church to teach in the Sunday school. I hereby endorse and covenant to faithfully perform each and all of the following articles:

1. Through a definite Divine work of grace in my heart and through my personal acceptance of Jesus Christ as my Savior, I have been born again and know that I am a child of God. I know that I have been made a new creation in Christ Jesus and will by God's power continue to walk after the Spirit in newness of life.
2. I will at all times endeavor to lead a consistent Christian life, separated from the world and all questionable amusements, and abstaining from any and all forms of liquor and tobacco in order that I may be a "vessel unto honor, sanctified, and meet for the master's use" (2 Timothy 2:21).
3. I will pray and study the Bible daily and earnestly engage in intercession before God for the salvation and spiritual growth of my scholars.
4. I will make careful preparation of the lesson to be taught and will attempt to teach my class with a thorough understanding of the lesson.
5. I will attend Sunday school faithfully and be at my post before the arrival of my students so that I may personally greet them cheerfully. If it is absolutely impossible for me to attend, I will seek to secure a substitute and notify the Sunday School Director of the change.
6. I will endeavor, by example and teaching, as the Lord enables, to encourage in the Christian life those of my students who are saved and to win the unsaved to Christ. I will urge them to attend the Sunday services, prayer meetings, Bible studies, and other activities of the church. I hereby covenant to set before them a personal example.
7. I will contact all absentees as soon as possible after Sunday, and I will try to visit all of my students this year.
8. I will make it a rule to attend the regular meetings, my class' leadership, and scheduled training.
9. I will render willing cooperation to those over me in the Lord and will manifest Christian respect and kindness to all my fellow Sunday school workers.
10. Recognizing the great importance of sound doctrine in the Sunday school, I affirm my belief in the doctrines of the Word of God as stated in the Church's Constitution and By-Laws.
